Winn Dixie Youth

Anthony Hall, City recreation director presented his and the Rec board concerns with Winn Dixie Youth league from the last ball season. Mr. Hall stated that as the recreation director and the Rec board acting President they are recommending that the City allow them to choose a new board and run a tighter program this coming ball season because of how Winn Dixie Youth board fell short of running a good ball season. Mr. Hall wanted the City to confirm that the City would approve the City role in this program. Hall stated that he only has knowledge of what he has done in the past to how the program is ran, that he has requested the contract and have had no success.

City Attorney asked details of how program was previously running and suggested that there be an agreement with Winn Dixie Youth and stated his concerns of Mr. Hall taking on the role as President of the Rec Board.

Mayor Moss and Council agreed to give resolution to authorize the Rec board to engage in contract with Winn Dixie Youth Program and Rec Director Anthony Hall be the person of contact.

On motion by Councilperson Miller, duly seconded by Councilperson Holden, after no public comment, the Council members present unanimously voted to authorize a Resolution to contract with Winn Dixie Youth.
